

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is terrible. It is an example of the dangers we have feared from all of this media consolidation.

Once again the airwaves are being used not to serve the public interest, but to help big business and their bottom line.

This is why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.